Alex Radosevic to Connect With Attendees at Upcoming Westside Los Angeles Real Estate Conference

Nationally Regarded Beverly Hills Real Estate and Commercial Property Expert to Appear at Prestigious Event to Be Held at Luxe Hotel Sunset Boulevard

LOS ANGELES, November 20, 2018 (Newswire.com) - Noted real estate broker and high-end property expert Alex Radosevic is slated to appear at the prestigious Connect Westside Los Angeles real estate conference held on Nov. 27, 2018. This is a coup for the conference, as Radosevic is a nationally recognized real estate thought leader with a reputation for excellence. As president of noted Beverly Hills firm CANON Properties, Radosevic owns or oversees the management of a portfolio valued at more than $2 billion, most of it in the heart of Los Angeles' west side. He is also a member of the Forbes Real Estate Council, comprised of leaders from coast to coast invited by the venerable publication to contribute their expertise for the benefit of Forbes readers.

"I am excited about attending this important event," Radosevic said. "So many people have contacted me about attending and, thus, I have made time in my schedule to join colleagues at the Luxe Sunset Boulevard."

As perhaps the leading expert on the topic of real estate in the west LA area, Radosevic provides extensive guidance and counsel to wealthy family offices and individuals with regard to investing in one of the hottest real estate markets in the world. Additionally, Radosevic's CANON Properties is the top firm in the region when it comes to the high-quality management of property for owners and others that seek to both protect and maximize their return on investment.

"One of the things that I think we do better than anyone else at CANON is cost-effectively manage commercial real estate properties for owners and any number of companies. One reason we have never lost a client to a competitor is because the CANON team leaves no stone unturned when it comes to the management of property. Our commitment to the twin hallmarks of quality and excellence 24/7 has enabled us to build long-term relationships with our clients."

"One of the things that I think we do better than anyone else at CANON is cost-effectively manage commercial real estate properties for owners and any number of companies," says Radosevic. "One reason we have never lost a client to a competitor is because the CANON team leaves no stone unturned when it comes to the management of property. Our commitment to the twin hallmarks of quality and excellence 24/7 has enabled us to build long-term relationships with our clients."

CANON owns and manages properties throughout the region, including within the Golden Triangle swath of Beverly Hills, home to the most valuable properties in the world.

Radosevic and his team have developed a reputation for personalized service, attention to detail and strategic, price-competitive management solutions that do not compromise on quality, copied by many but duplicated by none. "Being located in the heart of Beverly Hills gives us insight and expertise that allows us to be at the top of the property management pyramid," Radosevic said. "Regardless of the size or scope of a property, we have solutions that can fit any kind of property and any budget. I am extremely proud of the reputation we have developed over the past two decades. Owners know that we leave nothing to chance when it comes to protecting their investments and maximizing their ROI."

CANON manages properties throughout the West Los Angeles region and beyond. While at the Connect Westside Los Angeles real estate conference Radosevic plans to meet with existing clients while also spending time talking with others that are interested in CANON'S unique suite of property management solutions and those interested in discussing high-end real estate investment opportunities.
